

W. GORDON PLEWES AWARD

HISTORY COMMITTEE

Terms of Reference

(last revised 1992)

Introduction

- This annual award is given to the individual who has made particularly noteworthy contributions to the study of the history of civil engineering in Canada or the history of civil engineering achievements by Canadians elsewhere.
- Measures of such noteworthy contributions include the quality of publications and the effectiveness of leadership in promoting the increased awareness of the history of civil engineering.